A PIECE OF FRIENDLY ADVICE

The recent decision by the Board of Deputies of British Jews to form an organisation singularly dedicated to opposing the growth of British Nationalism is both worrying and unnecessary.

Worrying, because the Board are supposed to look after the best interests of British Jews, a religious minority that constitutes less than one percent of Britain's population.

History has shown that when the minority "tail" tries to wag the majority "dog", the dog gets first frustrated and then angry often with tragic results for the "tail".

Secondly, we feel this move to be unnecessary. British Jews do have both the right and the opportunity to join political parties offering alternatives to British Nationalism, so why is there the need to form a group that will not even take part in the democratic electoral process?

Finally, British Jews have nothing to fear from British Nationalism. Most are patriotic and owe no allegiance to any other country. They only have to look to the continent where Nationalists already have political control in many towns and cities throughout Europe. This rise of Nationalism has not harmed the Jewish population at all. Not one concentration camp has been built in Nationalist controlled areas of France, Italy or Flanders, nor are there any gas chambers. All just part of the hysteria whipped up by some of their pro-zionist leaders.

If the Board really wishes to look after the welfare of it's co-religionists, then we feel that attempting to deny the majority of Britons the right to "self-determination" is not the best way of doing it.

POLITICAL CORRECTNESS

In these days of "political correctness" where it is often claimed that "minorities" are under-represented, it is interesting to note that the Jewish minority who make up just under 1% of Britains population have a total of 21 Jewish MP's in the current parliament. This equates to about 4% of the total number of MP's. In addition we have a Jewish Home Secretary, a Jewish Chairman of the Home Affairs Select Committee, a Jewish Defence Secretary, and if rumours prove right, the next Lord Chancellor could also be Jewish.

Surely a case of "Political INCORRECTNESS".

TOMORROW BELONGS TO US

Although Derek Beackon lost his council seat, the only one held by a recognised Nationalist, we must not view the election results as a failure. Throughout the country over THIRTY-SIX THOUSAND BRITONS VOTED NATIONALIST, no wonder the "establishment" are worried.

WE'RE ON OUR WAY TO VICTORY!

ANTI-FASCIST ADMITS...

"I am a volunteer in the IRA" statement in court by Patrick Hayes, a member of "Red Action" and "A.F.A."

The true nature of those shadowy men that hide behind the label of "anti-fascism" was revealed recently when two "anti-fascists" from the Trotskyist "Red Action gang" were each jailed for 30 years for carrying out a bombing campaign in London on behalf of the IRA.

The two men, 51 year old Jan Taylor, and 41 year old Patrick Hayes, were found guilty of causing explosions outside Harrods store in London, and a bomb attack on a train going from London Victoria to Ramsgate in Kent. Amounts of semtex explosives and firearms were also found in their possession.

Both men were known to the Police as active "anti-fascists" and had been photographed attending various demonstrations organised by the IRA's support groups, the "Irish Freedom Movement" and the Socialist Workers Party. In fact, one of the weapons recovered by the police at Hayes's North London flat, was wrapped in a copy of the Socialist Worker.

Hayes fancied himself as a bit of a "hard man" who had been involved in several violent attacks against British Nationalists, and Taylor had been arrested previously when as an official of the IRA's political wing "Sinn Fein" he was fined £150 for selling an IRA calendar in a North London pub.

"Anti-Fascist Action", is an umbrella organisation formed in 1985, comprising of several extreme left-wing groups whose common ground is their dedication to the advance of a multi-racial communist State and their support for Irish Republicanism. It is widely publicised by the anti-fascist magazine, Searchlight.

Almost since AFA's conception, it has been dominated by the IRA's "fan club" Red Action. This Trotskyist group is noted for it's penchance to violence, particularly against old people, and is also suspected to be behind the recent vicious attacks on BNP candidates.

Whilst Britons can feel a little safer now with these two behind bars, we urge the authorities to look closely at the role of Searchlight magazine in all this.

Searchlight has often claimed to have contacts in the security services including presumably MI5, but for what purpose? Could they be agent provocateurs? or do they just trade information? Also we believe a statement from the Home Affairs Select Committee would be helpful, perhaps explaining why they based so much of their recent report on information supplied by a magazine which promotes violent terrorist support groups such as AFA.

Austria

Nationalist Comrade Gottfried Kussel has been sentenced to nine years in prison for expressing doubts on the Holocaust and for proclaiming his belief that Adolf Hitler and National Socialism were better for Germany than the current democratic system.

Please write to Gottfried and let him know he has not been forgotten. Do not enclose anything that may give the authorities the excuse to deny him an early probation.

United States.

US President Clinton has shocked the all powerful Jewish lobby by refusing their demands for an early release of Israeli spy, Jonathen Pollard.

Pollard was sentenced to life imprisonment in 1986 when he was found guilty of passing US Naval secrets to Israel.

An Orthodox Rabbi based in Los Angeles, has been found guilty of "laundering" money for drug dealers. Rabbi Abraham Low, a member of the Satmar sect which is based in New York, told two undercover FBI agents he could "launder" up to five million dollars a week through Orthodox Jewish diamond dealers and the bank accounts of Chasidic charities.

Germany.

Demands by German Socialists and Jewish groups for an enquiry following the successful Rudolf Hess Memorial march held in Germany last year, has led to the dismissal of Christoph Kulenkampff, the State Secretary in the Hesse Interior Ministry.

Herr Kulenkampff was found guilty of "negligence" as he failed to stop the march from taking place.

Norman Kempen, a senior member of Germany's ruling Christian Democratic Union (CDU) has been released from Police custody after the authorities admitted they had no evidence he was the author of "Der Einblick" (Insight), a right-wing magazine which published the names and addresses of "anti-fascists".

Politicians in Berlin, including members of the Nationalist "Republikaner Party", have voted to refuse planning permission to erect a "Holocaust memorial" in the Steglitz section of the city. The memorial was planned by the local Jewish community supported by the left-wing Social Democrats. Opponents to the plan said "We don't need any more Holocaust memorials, we have enough all ready".

Jordan

Jordan has become the second Arab country to ban the showing or distribution of the film "Schindler's List" on the grounds that it is "racist" and could incite hatred against Germans.

The Jordanian Information Minister, Jawad Anani, who imposed the ban also criticised Hollywood for not making films showing the suffering of the Palestinian people under Israel's occupation.

Denmark.

Fraternal greetings have been received from, Henrik Christensen, Press Officer of the Danish National Socialist Movement (DNSB). Mr Christensen speaks and writes excellent English and is the editor of the party's newspaper "Foedrelandet" (Fatherland).

The DNSB have been very active on the Nationalist scene for several years and sent a large contingent to the Hess Memorial March last year.

Mr Christensen can be contacted via: P.O. Box 1882, DK-2300, Copenhagen S. Denmark.

South Africa.

The Afrikaaner Resistance Movement (AWB), have refused a meeting with South Africa's new President, Nelson Mandela unless he agrees to release all Nationalist prisoners beforehand.

EURO-ELECTIONS.

FRANCE.

At 10.5% the French National Front polled slightly less than expected but still retained their two seats in the Euro-Parliament. A Party spokesman said they felt immigration was a far more important subject for French voters than European affairs.

GERMANY.

The Republikaner Party polled only 4.00% of the vote, against 7% attained in recent elections, thus denying them any representation in the Euro Parliament. Under Germany's "PR" system, a Political Party needs at least 5% of the vote to assure seats.

ITALY.

The Nationalist grouping making up the ruling "Forza Italia" Party, gained a total of 30.6% of the "Euro-vote", which was a sizeable increase from the 21% that it polled in the recent General Elections.

"Forza Italia" now have a total of 27 seats in the Euro-parliament.

The "National Alliance", who changed their name recently from "MSI" and are now part of the coalition "Forza Italia", won 12.5% of the vote, giving them 11 "Euro-seats".

"Forza Italia" leader Silvio Berlusconi gives "victory" salute to Italian Communists.

FLANDERS.

One of the biggest successes in the Euro-Campaign was undoubtedly that of the Flemish Nationalist Party, "Vlaams Blok", who almost doubled their share of the vote from 6.5% to 12.6%, gaining 2 seats in the Euro-Parliament.

In the other part of Belgium, French speaking Wallonia, the Belgian "Front National" came from nowhere, to 7.9% giving them their first ever seat.

Both the VB and the FN campaigned extensively on immigration issues.

"BLOODBATH FEARED AT CARNIVAL

Police lie to cover up violence.

A senior Doctor has exposed secret plans to deal with the explosion of violence expected at this years Afro-Caribbean, Notting Hill Carnival, and in doing so, has unwittingly revealed that the Metropolitan Police have been lying to the public about the levels of violence at previous carnival's!

Jane Fothergill, an accident and emergency consultant at St Mary's Hospital in London, has leaked plans for medical cover during this year's carnival weekend which includes, four extra nurses, ten senior house officers, extra registrars and even several medical students to help cope with the expected flood of casualties. The plans also include a mobile HQ for the Ambulance service and several teams of para-medics on call, but the most ominous part of the plan is the decision to bring in extra cleaners to "mop up the blood spattered walls and floors".

Complaining about the lack of proper pre-planning last year, Dr Fothergill described the carnival as a "bloodbath". Over 115 serious casualties with injuries including life-threatening haemorrhage, facial lacerations, stab wounds and skull fractures.

Thirty-nine percent of these were the result of assault!

"It was a case of ambulances, ambulances, ambulances, bringing in a steady stream of injuries. On several occasions they were queued three deep at the approach ramp.

There were not sufficient cleaners available and the doctors were unable to clean the blood spattered walls and floors quickly enough as casualty after casualty was brought in".

Dr Fothergill's unbiased account of last year's carnival greatly differs from that of an unnamed Police Spokesman who told the media "this has been the most peaceful carnival to date. Everybody has enjoyed themselves".

The Notting Hill carnival has always attracted violence.

Murder, rape, riot and vicious attacks on both the police and members of the public have been a regular feature of the carnival ever since it began, but calls to ban it have been resisted by politicians for fear of upsetting the "ethnic minority" organisers. This position of "no ban" is also supported by the police, but why?

It is well known that the police service in London is dominated by "racial awareness" and "political correctness", but this does not justify the police deliberately telling lies in the cause of racial harmony. Honesty is the cornerstone of Justice and fair play, not politically inspired lies!

Ban the carnival on the grounds of "public interest", and ban it NOW!

"Politically Correct" Police Commissioner Paul Condon. Ultimately responsible for Police "cover-up" over carnival violence.

Over 20,000 Londoners vote "NATIONALIST" in elections.

In the recent spate of elections, local council, European and two parliamentary bye elections, over 20,000 Londoners cast their votes for Nationalist candidates. This was despite a largely illegal "dirty-tricks" campaign conducted by "anti-democrats posing as anti-racists".

Most of the media attention was focused on the Millwall ward of the Isle of Dogs, where the BNP's Derek Beackon was defending the only council seat held by Nationalists. As Derek had only won the seat in a bye-election by seven votes, seasoned observers felt that he was unlikely to retain the seat because of the high profile campaign being waged against him by such unholy alliances as the Church of England, the Board of Deputies of British Jews and the Crypto-Communist Socialist Workers Party. None of whom had the courage to stand their own candidates against him.

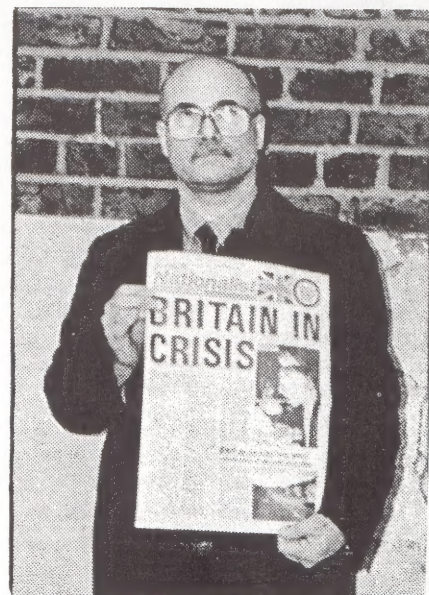

He did, however, increase his personal vote by another 500 votes, polling 2,041. It was also interesting to note that two other BNP candidates standing in with him also polled over 1,700 votes each, giving the BNP 28% of the vote.

In another part of Tower Hamlets, the three BNP candidates in Holy Trinity ward all polled over 700 votes each, giving them 23%.

But it was in nearby Newham that the BNP nearly caused another upset. In "Alf Garnet" land, where many of the locals support West Ham United, the local Conservatives tried to attract some sort of vote by campaigning under the title of Conservatives Against Labour's Unfair Housing Policies" (CALUHP); a subtle way of informing the electorate that the Labour council was allocating houses to non-white families, whilst the Whites were being allocated high-rise flats. This tactic definitely drew voters from the BNP but the BNP still managed to poll 33% of the vote in Becton ward, just missing out on gaining two seats by a mere 65 votes! To prove that this was no fluke, in the adjacent wards of Custom House and Silvertown, the BNP polled 24%.

In the Dagenham, East London, by-election, the BNP leader, John Tyndall, polled over 1,500 votes to retain his deposit, much to the disgust of local reds.

ELECTIONS MARRED BY RED VIOLENCE.

The recent elections, both local council and parliamentary, were marred by an upsurge in violence directed at Nationalist candidates. The worst affected area was in East London, where the forces of the left launched a vicious campaign mainly against BNP candidates and officers.

In Canning Town, a BNP candidate was attacked whilst out canvassing by a gang of masked men and as a result of the attack was permanently blinded in one eye.

On the Isle of Dogs, where high profile candidate Derek Beackon was defending the BNP's only council seat, a vanload of Reds was spotted cruising the area but obviously decided not to attack as they were heavily outnumbered by Nationalists.

The Reds did have more success when three men posing as council workers and armed with forged documents, managed to persuade BNP Press spokesman, Mike Newlands to open his front door and then carried out a vicious attack on him using iron bars and a hammer. Brave Mike fought back and managed to inflict a head wound on one of his attackers with a baseball bat. Anti-Fascist Action, and their dominant group Red Action, both made their presence known via stickers in Barking, East London, during the local council elections and although several known "anti-fascist" thugs were seen in the area, open surveillance by the Police seemingly deterred them from launching any attacks.

Or were they just surveying the area?

In the adjacent constituency of Dagenham, BNP leader John Tyndall was standing in the Parliamentary bye-election held just two weeks after the local elections.

Whilst various Anti-Fascist groups including the SWP's Anti-Nazi League, and Militant's YRE both stickered and leafleted the area, the cowardly AFA ambushed a small group of BNP canvassers, badly beating a 42 year old Nationalist with their now customary iron bars.

On an even more sinister note, it was amazing that even in this age of advanced communications, the speed in which Searchliar managed to get the media to launch a "smokescreen" over the attacks by suggesting that the attacks were not implemented by the left, but instead by a dissident group of Nationalists. This "smokescreen tactic" was successful for the first few attacks but was dispelled following the Dagenham assault. One of the victims of the violence told the police and local press that he had previously seen at least two of his attackers participating in an Anti-Fascist demonstration just a few days earlier! This however only seemed to get a mention in ONE local paper!

In all of the attacks, the police so far have made no arrests to date, this despite having been given descriptions of the attackers and even the registration numbers of some of the vehicles used!

In Hounslow, West London, both the local BNP candidate and his young family were also becoming the victims of a vicious campaign against them organised mainly by the SWP. Fortunately, assistance was at hand in the shape of several tough young Nationalists who in repelling one particularly violent attack, sent three members the the SWP/ANL off to the local hospital.

Following the elections, the violence against Nationalists has continued, with the National Front leader, Ian Anderson, receiving a parcel bomb which was designed to maim and blind. Fortunately Ian, was only slightly injured by the device. Once again police are investigating, but once again, no arrests are expected to be made.

Call For Inquiry into "Election Interference"

The Home Secretary has been asked to institute an inquiry into alleged "election interference" by the Anti-Nazi League (ANL), Anti-Fascist Action (AFA) and Youth Against Racism in Europe (YRE) for actions illegal under section 63 of the Representation of the Peoples Act. A complaint has also been made about the behaviour of the Board of Deputies of British Jews.

The demand for an inquiry revolves around the mass leaflet, sticker and poster campaign launched by the above groups in which they attempted to influence an election in which they were not taking part

Thousands of posters urging voters not to vote "Nazi" and then inferring that either the BNP or National Front were Nazi's were illegally fly-posted in many of the constituencies where there were Nationalist candidates standing. In the then Liberal-Democrat controlled London Borough of Tower Hamlets, where the BNP's Derek Beackon was a councillor, some posters even urged the public to "kick out the Racist Liberals" as well as the BNP!

In most cases the Labour Candidates welcomed the support of the "anti-fascists" and as the offending literature was clearly designed to give support to Labour, the expenses of printing and distributing should have been entered on the electoral expenses of the Labour candidates. In no cases have we found evidence that this has actually happened.

The Legal precedent for these complaints were quite clearly established in 1976, when a judgement by the Law Lords in a case D.P.P. v Luft (could this have been "Mikey" Luft of Searchlight ?) ruled that the anti-Fascists who had distributed pamphlets against the National Front candidates at a parliamentary general election and posters saying "don't vote for the National Front candidate" were guilty of an offence under section 63 of the R.P.A; as they were not standing in an election but, "incurred expenses to prevent the election of a particular candidate or particular candidates".

"In the event of the election of a BNP candidate in Newham on May 5th, members should take strike action on May 6th and also attend a Branch Meeting on that day to discuss future actions."

Proposed: J. Lang - Housing Department
Seconded: G. Darcy - Housing Department

League Sentinel has already written to both the Attorney General and the Home Secretary complaining of this breach of the law. We have also sent examples of the illegal leaflets and stickers distributed by left-wing organisations.

We now urge the National leaders of our Patriotic Parties to do the same! This illegal interference must be stopped NOW!

The club had several windows smashed, as well as slogans painted on the property. YRE leaflets were also found outside the club but the local YRE organiser, Ged Grebby, denied that YRE members were responsible for the damage. THE TRAGEDY

In the wake of recent Zionist atrocities in Israel it is important to review the origins of the conflict between Arabs and Israelis in the historic context. The purpose of this article is to sweep aside the myths and the bogus moral claims of Zionist imperialism in the Middle East and lend a voice to the beleaguered Arab people.

The author of this article is unashamedly pro-Palestinian, having friends in several Arab countries. Notwithstanding, the case for a free Palestine is put forward rationally with a regard for the facts.

We should begin, not with an attack on the Jewish people, but with an appraisal of the indigenous Arab. For Palestine is of the Arab, for the Arab and was for thousands of years.

The object of Arab life was to be - to be free, to be brave, to be wise; while the endeavours of other peoples was and is to have- to have wealth, to have knowledge, to have a name. Association with Arab people reveals the true nobility of their minds. He is a gentleman in manners without awkwardness or vulgarity. As a man he is high-spirited and energetic, always ready to fight for his country and, especially his faith. He is hospitable to the stranger, attached to his fellow citizens, submissive to superiors and kindly to inferiors. It was this nobility of mind which undoubtedly contributed to the creation of an Arab empire at a time when Europe was in darkness, ignorance and superstition....when all that was polite or elegant in literature was classed among the "Studia Arabum".

In 634 AD, the Arabs, inspired by Muhammed the Prophet, extended an empire as far as India, Tibet and China. Morocco and Spain were the western provinces. They were not a primitive, savage people but the custodians of a civilizing influence which has left an imprint to this day. That, today, Zionist fanatics preach a view that the Palestinian Arab is a form of "Untermensch" to be displaced is a travesty of historic fact and an unspeakable insult. The Arab's literature, especially his poetry, is inspirational...his religious faith, pure...his achievements in the sciences, remarkable. It is this derogatory defamation on the part of the Zionists which is used to create a myth in order to cover the greatest lie of all. That lie is the claim that Palestine belongs to the Jewish people. A fictional history was invented to convince many that the land of Palestine has belonged to the Jews by hereditary right since the time of Abraham, eighteen centuries before Christ. The fact is, the Jews never constituted a majority at any time in history and they were certainly never confined to Palestine. The Jewish tribe which invaded Palestine in 1250 BC amounted to about 15,000 people and they were to intermarry with the indigenous Canaanites who outnumbered them. Of the twelve tribes of Israel, ten were carried off to Assyria in 722 BC, never to return...and in 586 BC, the tribe of Judah was taken to Babylon. The rest dispersed to Greece, Italy and Gaul where they attempted to convert the "goyim" to their god, "Yahweh". Most of the Jews outside of Palestine were converts with no lineal connection with the tribe of Judah...the "Law of Return" being utterly bogus.

The Arab Empire, like all empires, was not to endure. The Ottoman Empire dominated the Middle East, including Palestine, in the 16th century and was to last up to the First World War when T.E. Lawrence organised the Arab revolt against the Turks. Around this time was the beginning of the tragedy of Palestine and the betrayal of the Arab people when a British government colluded with American Jewry on the issue of the Balfour Declaration, giving this international caste a foothold in the Middle East. This collusion was a cynical move to encourage full American participation in the World War but its greatest infamy was the British government's breaking of a promise to the Sherif of Mecca that all Arab countries east of Sinai would be given independence after the Arab victory over the Turks.

The Turkish domination in the Middle East was broken but a more dangerous and insidious element was to threaten the rights of the Palestinian Arab .. the encroaching Jewish Zionist using the financial power amassed in Western countries significantly in the beginning of this century, from the Rothschild family who had already encouraged the first Jewish settlements in Palestine. In a land where Jews constituted only 7% of the population after the First World War (they constituted 5% before the machinations of the Rothschilds and their language was Arabic) the Arab majority was given no say on whether their native country should be turned into a national home for Jews. If they were given a say then, of course, they would have rejected the Balfour Declaration lock, stock and barrel. It was clearly wrong to allow foreign immigrants from Europe to seize a country already occupied by a large native population and, even worse, to allow these immigrants to use force. The Palestinian Arabs reacted in the 1930's, particularly the peasants and farmers who wished to protect their land from Jewish terrorism. Shamefully, British troops were used to suppress these protests with the Mufti of Jerusalem having to flee to Damascus. Later, in Bagdad, the Mufti was to extend the hand of friendship to National Socialist Germany which he saw as a hope of restoring justice to the Middle East. Adolf Hitler reciprocated that friendship by accepting Muslims into the Waffen SS. Himmler was to remark that "he had nothing against Islam because this religion assumes the task of instructing men, promising them heaven if they fight with courage and get themselves killed on the battlefield; in short, it is a very practical and attractive religion for a soldier". Those opportunities were lost in 1945.

The State of Israel was established in 1948 by the use of the most inhuman and cowardly terror...against innocent Arabs, including women and children, and the bombing and torture of British servicemen, ironically dubbed as "Nazis".

The domination of successive American administrations by wealthy Jews ensured the support of a "super-power" and the moral blackmail of ill-treatment of Jews in Germany dissuaded criticism of Zionist excesses for fear of being labelled "anti-semitic".

The Palestinian came off the worst. Treated as second-class citizens in their own country, they have been systematically oppressed, imprisoned and tortured. They have been driven out of their homes and villages...dispossessed and disinherited. The most sickening hypocrisy of the Jewish Zionists is their incessant harping on about their centuries-old persecution while their treatment of the Palestinians goes against all notions of human decency.

After the Hebron mosque massacre there should be no compromise with the fanatical Zionist terrorists. In fact, there should be no compromise with the State of Israel.

The struggle for a free Palestine should go on regardless of talks and pieces of paper.

The Middle East is historically Arab and should be restored on the terms of the promises made in 1917...then there will not just be justice but honour !

No Action Over Memorial Desecration.

Scottish legal authorities have decided to take no action against the vandals responsible for the desecration of the Hess Peace Memorial at Floors Farm, Eagelsham.

The memorial, which was erected privately with the landowners permission, was smashed by Ameer Anwar the leader of the Glasgow Anti-Nazi League, whilst Scottish television filmed the desecration.

A complaint to the Strathclyde Police led to an investigation but the Procurator Fiscal's Office, which is responsible for prosecuting criminals in Scotland, decided to take no action against the perpetrator.

Following this obviously political decision, several Nationalists wrote to the head of "justice" in Scotland, the Lord Advocate, asking him to overturn the Procurator Fiscal's ruling. Amazingly, the supreme Legal Official decided that, despite clear evidence of an offence of criminal damage and, further evidence to the identity of those involved, he would not overrule the decision not to prosecute.

Further letters were sent to the Lord Advocate asking for an explanation as to his decision and informing him that if he did not sanction a criminal prosecution, then several Nationalists, including Wolf Rudiger Hess, son of the the peace campaigner, intended to mount a private prosecution to seek justice.

In reply to this move, the Lord Advocate's Office, decided that the reasons behind the decision were confidential and in an unprecedented move, ruled that they would not allow a private prosecution to take place!

Whilst Scotland does have it's own unique legal system, we believe even there, justice "must not only be done, but must be seen to be done". Political decisions have no place in our legal system and we vow to continue our struggle, until justice is achieved and the desecrators punished!

Footnote. An unknown group has attacked and destroyed a mural dedicated to the South African terrorist leader Nelson Mandela. The mural, in an Edinburgh church, had the words Combat 18 and AWB painted over the canvas.

In Memoriam

"I had a loyal Comrade, none better will you find"

RUDOLF HESS.
20.4.1894 - 17.8.94.

Imprisoned for 40 years, his only crime was to attempt to bring about peace between two European "Brothers".

In the afternoon of the 17th of August 1987, Rudolf Hess was murdered by "agents of the British State". Hess was 94 years old.

The following words are taken from a statement made by Hess at his "trial" in 1947.

"I was privileged for many years of my life to serve under the greatest son whom my people has ever produced in it's thousand years of history. Even if I could, I would not erase this time from my existence I am happy to know that I have done my duty toward my people, my duty as a German, as a National Socialist, as a loyal follower of the Fuhrer. I REGRET NOTHING.

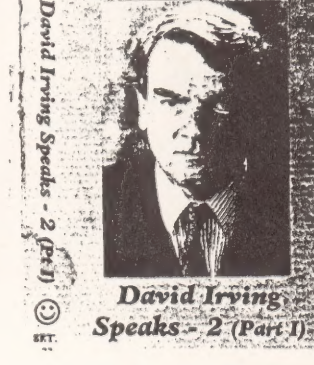

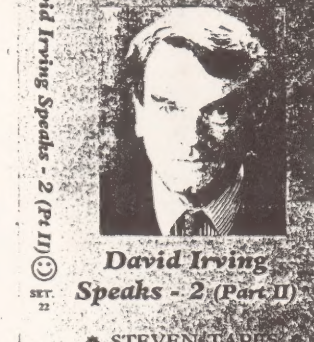

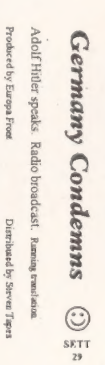

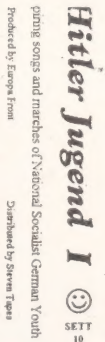

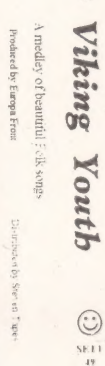

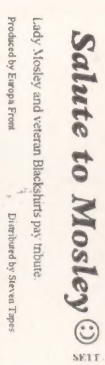

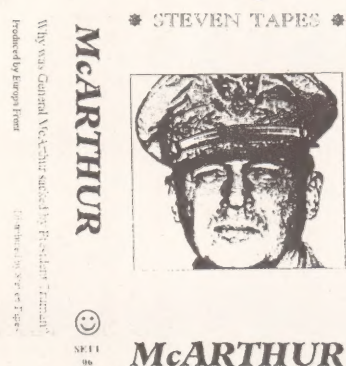

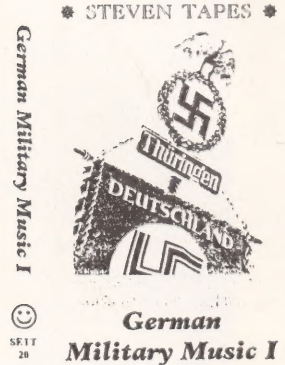

If I were to begin all over again, I would act as I did, even if I knew that a funeral pyre was waiting at the end for my immolation. Regardless of what people do, I will one day stand before the judgement seat of the Eternal, I will justify myself to Him, AND I KNOW HE WILL EXONERATE ME".

RUDOLF HESS.
